well lead

Principal Mai-Rhea Whitty holds a Master's degree in educational Administration and Leadership, is certified in Canada, and has over nine years of elementary school experience with Adventist Education.

Education for Eternity

"I want more from my child's education." Preparing young people for successful, useful and joy-filled lives in the 21st century and into eternity – this is the mission of the Seventh-day Adventist educational system. Since 1872, we've practiced "whole person" education – teaching young people not only to excel academically, but to develop healthy bodies, loving relationships and thriving spiritual lives.
